

A Message from All Saints Pastor
Rev. Robert C. Cilinski

Dear Parishioners,

Last spring an eighth grade student who had been in our school for three years told me, 'Growing up I had heard about Christ, but now I have come to know Him and I want to be baptized.' For me, that was like receiving a gold ribbon for that's what we are about: forming the people of God, students, faculty, and staff to live the gospel of Jesus.

I rejoice today that the academic achievements of our students have been recognized with the Blue Ribbon Award. The most significant reason for this success is that our principal and teachers enforce high standards and challenge our students to be their best.

Thank you, Mr. Conroy, assistant principal Elba Campagna, and our dedicated faculty and staff. Thank you, All Saints students, Moms and Dads, and parishioners of All Saints for the important partnership you share in forming our children in faith and learning.

I applaud and congratulate the school community on this special recognition!

Love and Blessings,

*Father Bob Cilinski
All Saints Pastor*

A Message from our School Principal
Mr. David E. Conroy, Jr.

Dear Parishioners,

Together we rejoice in the news that All Saints Catholic School has been named a 2009 Blue Ribbon School of Excellence. This national recognition affirms that our parish school is one of the top performing in our nation, a model for others to follow.

I wish to acknowledge our pastor, Fr. Cilinski, the many members of the clergy, parishioners, staff members, students and school families ~ past and present ~ who have helped to create the legacy of our parish school. It is their collective efforts over the course of many years that have enabled us to arrive at this moment of distinction.

I am particularly grateful to the faculty and staff, a remarkably talented and dedicated group of professionals. With the support of the parish community and the Parent Teacher Organization, they have created a first-class environment of faith and learning.

On this occasion I wish to extend a special word of thanks to the parish at large. With your prayers and generous stewardship, the school has grown in wisdom and grace. It is, indeed, a bright shining light for the greater community of Manassas. It is a place where students encounter a meaningful curriculum that promotes intellectual formation. Most importantly, it is a place where children are immersed in the finest traditions of our Catholic faith! Thank you for your unwavering support and for all that you have done to support our mission.

Congratulations All Saints Parish and School Community!

With heartfelt gratitude,

*David E. Conroy, Jr.
